Capstone Project - The Battle of Neighbourhoods (Part-1) Introduction:

New York City has also been a popular city for immigrants. There are many languages are spoken in New York, making it the most linguistically diverse city in the world. English remains the most widely spoken language, although there are areas in the outer boroughs in which up to 25% of people speak English as an alternate language, and/or have limited or no English language fluency.

With its diverse culture, comes diverse food items. There are many restaurants in New York City, each belonging to different categories like Chinese, Indian, and French etc.

Problem:

Find answers to the following questions:

Q1) List and visualize all major parts of New York City that has great Indian restaurants.

Q2) what is best location in New York City for Indian Cuisine?

Q3) which all areas lack Indian Restaurants?

Q4) which is the best place to stay if you prefer Indian Cuisine?
